UCLA

CENTER FOR PREHOSPITAL CARE

at the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA

PART-TIME POSITIONS AVAILABLE:

Share your knowledge, your skills, and your insights with our students working as a

Clinical Instructor

for the UCLA Center for Prehospital Care Emergency Medical Technician Program

Ever wondered how to start your career as an EMS educator? As the leading emergency and prehospital academic center on the West Coast, we offer you the opportunity to work with experienced educators, develop lesson plans, maintain your skills, and even develop new ones.

All with the convenience of course schedules that allow you to work around your current job. So you'll instruct current and future healthcare providers and earn extra money doing it!

General Description:

The EMT Clinical Instructor's primary responsibilities include teaching, evaluating, and testing skills for EMT and BLS students.

Benefits:

- These are per diem positions (starting rate is $18 per hour).
- Teach a minimum six days a month.
- Recertify your EMT and BLS provider certifications with ease.
- Scholarships to obtain and maintain ACLS, PALS, PHTLS and BLS instructor certifications (a savings of up to $225 per course)!

Job Requirements:

- What is needed is the desire to share your knowledge and instill clinical excellence. While previous teaching experience is preferred, it is not required.
- Current certification as an EMT or paramedic licensure.
- 6 months field work experience as an EMT or paramedic.
- AHA BLS provider certifications.

TO APPLY:

All qualified interested applicants are encouraged to apply by sending a letter of interest and a resume by Friday, June 25, 2010, to:

UCLA Center for Prehospital Care, ATTN: Personnel Manager
10990 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 1450, Los Angeles, CA 90024
or by e-mail to rcalva@mednet.ucla.edu or fax to (310) 312-9322 (EOE)